

KLAAR WOOD bench

without backrest

Rationality, neutrality and the precise aesthetic finishing of parts that characterize Klaar are qualities that never go out of date nor submit to the rapidly changing vogues. The clarity and lightness of its shape and the wide selection of materials make Klaar suitable for using in many different modern architectural contexts, offering solutions that meet different requirements. The line includes park benches for three where it is good to sit and rest one's back, gaze at the sea, single chairs that offer a moment of rest and a chance to be alone in the noise of a city square as well as seats and tables that enable the creation of picnic settings in a park.
